

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE
COST ESTIMATE

September 30, 1998

S. 2235

A bill to amend part Q of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 to encourage the use of school resource officers

As reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on September 24, 1998

Enacting S. 2235 would permit states to use grants for public safety and community policing for establishing school-based partnerships between local law enforcement agencies and local school systems. These partnerships would involve the use of law enforcement officers to address crime around elementary and secondary schools. CBO estimates that S. 2235 would have no significant effect on the federal budget. Because S. 2235 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

S. 2235 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would have no impact on the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
